MEALS FOR PRISONERS.

Idaho Supreme Court Holds That County Is Not Responsible for Bill Contracted by Sheriff.

[TRIBUNE SPECIAL]

Boise, Ida., Jan. 20.-The Supreme court has decided that a person furnishing meals for prisoners on the order of a Sheriff must look to that official for his pay.

The question arose in a case from Pocatello in which Joseph Mombert sought to recover from the county pay for meals furnished prisoners, he having fed the prisoners under an arrange ment with the Sheriff. The latter falled to pay him, and Mombert appealed to the Commissioners, who rejected the claim. The District court ordered the claim paid. The Supreme court now reverses the Judgment. One Justice dissented. The county did not pay the Sheriff, and that official being in default the dissenting Judge holds the county should pay the man who actually furnished the meals.
